Lesson-Sermon topic announced

The Lesson-Sermon "Adam and Fallen Man" in all churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, develops the theme of awakening from the "deep sleep" which fell upon Adam, to the glory of man in God's image.

The sermon commences with the first verse from Genesis, "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth," and continues with these affirmations from the same chapter, "So God created man in his own image, . . . And God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good." (1:1, 27, 31).

This theme is continued in statements by Mary Baker

Eddy from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," "Man, made in His likeness, possesses and reflects God's dominion over all the earth." "Knowledge of this lifts man above the sod, above the earth and its environments, to conscious spiritual harmony and eternal being." (pages 516, 521). Carrying out the same theme, the Golden Text quotes Paul's admonition to the Ephesians (5:14), "Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light."
